

ACADEMY OF HUMAN RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT

Dr. PRADIP N. KHANDWALLA

Adjunct Faculty of AHRD, Dr. Khandwalla had a long inning as Professor (OB) at IIM, Ahmedabad. He was also Director of IIM Ahmedabad from 1991-1996. Educated at Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania (M.B.A.), and Carnegie-Mellon University (Ph.D.) and also a Chartered Accountant (CA). He also taught at McGill University, Canada. He has coordinated two international conferences, authored over a dozen professional books, 3 books of poems and 110 articles published in renowned national and international journals. His books Fourth Eye: Excellence through Creativity, Corporate Creativity and Life-long Creativity stimulated the creativity movement in India. He served on the editorial/advisory boards of several of the world's leading journals of management and organizational research, including Administrative Science Quarterly (U.S.), Journal of Management (U.S.), Organizational Science (U.S.), VIKALPA, Organization Studies (U.K.) and many more. Served on the board of over a dozen corporations, and currently is a member of Governing Board of AHRD and many Corporate Boards. Has won many awards, including Ford Foundation Doctoral Fellowship (U.S.), Seagram Research Award (Canada), three best book of the year awards, and Lifetime Achievement Award in the field of HRD given by World HRD Congress. He has been a consultant/trainer to a large number of organizations like Aditya Birla Group, Alembic, BHEL, BPCL, CMC, NTPC, Pfizer, Reliance, Satyam Computers, Shell India, Tata Telecom, TELCO, Torrent, Wockhardt, World Bank, L&T, etc.