

Masterclass by Prof. Rajesh Chandwani on “ Research methods & Techniques : Journey of Researcher”

31 May and 20 June 2020

In the covid era digital learning has come a big way and changed the way we learn and disseminate knowledge. Going in line with the waves of digital transformation AHRD conducted online contact class for the fellows facilitated by Prof. Rajesh Chandwani, Chairman AHRD and Faculty IIMA.

The sessions were focussed on the journey of a research scholar and how each stage makes remarkable difference. He started with research questions and progressed on how the research objectives, research scope, context etc. need to be designed well for quality research work. The sessions were highly appreciated by the fellow students and contributed significantly in giving direction to the research work.
